

Aunt Black

Loosely based on a true story by Aunt Rykarda

Aunt Black

Written and illustrated by Aunt Rykarda

À mes chers petit neveux et nieces.

with love, Auntie

This is our aunt:

Our "Aunt Black"!

She wears only black - as a matter of fact.
She thinks it's quite cool.
"Aunt Black" –
that's how she's known to me and you!

Auntie wears mostly black for no good reason
She just thinks it's fine for any season!

When everyone else is dressed colorful and bright
Auntie wears black just like the starry night!

Louise is the name of Aunt Black's black cat.

Louise has fashionable bows in...

pink...

yellow...

and blue!

She's a cute little thing.
I'm sure you think so too!

Aunt black wears big black sunglasses
When the sun is hot and glaring.

Aunt Black travels about in a sporty black car ...

... And she takes her coffee "black"
when the day
is just beginning.

And sings along with her black guitar.

Our Auntie can draw and she can paint,
She wears a smock so her black clothes don't stain!

Our Aunt Black can do lots of things!

But... she's not a very good cook.

Unless you like
black toast!

I don't want to boast,
but our Aunt Black gives us sweets.
Blackberries and black licorice
are very delightful treats!

At night when the sky is almost nearly black,
and the long sunny day is done,
Auntie reads us all bedtime tales.
If we're nice she'll read more than one!

Then after each story has been read and it's bedtime for us all,
the black cat snoozes soundly and Aunt Black wishes
"Pleasant dreams!" to us all!

The End.

Aunt Black

Written and illustrated by Aunt Rykarda.

For more information:
info@RykardaParasol.com